THEATRE FESTIVAL NYC

FALL 2025

IS PROUD TO PRESENT THE

The Spark Theatre Festival NYC gives artists the rare opportunity to present their work-in-progress before an audience, afterwards engaging in a meaningful talkback session with audience, director, cast, and curator. The resulting insights are invaluable to the process, providing the playwright with the tools necessary to take the work to the next level.

Founded in 1993 by Artistic Director Paul Adams, EMERGING ARTISTS THEATRE has been an incubator
for new voices, from the page to the stage for 32 years.

This fall, Emerging Artists Theatre brings you the Spark Theatre Festival NYC. Visit the theater any evening during this three-week event and you'll find yourself transported in a number of surprising ways: by a single performer embodying a whole host of characters; by a dance piece that mesmerizes and entertains; by a play that forces you to think or laugh; or perhaps by a bouncy new musical that will have you humming.

Emerging Artists has always been about new works and diverse voices. That's never been more evident than now. And you, the audience, are the vital ingredient to making this a success. Your presence and participation in the unique talkback with the artists provides the insight they need to move their work forward.

During our 32 year history, Emerging Artists has premiered over 2,000 new works and also garnered a Drama Desk Nomination, received the American Theatre Wing Grant Award for Consistent Commitment to Excellence in Theatre, and was named Best Off-Off Broadway Theatre Company in NYC for Actors to Work With by Backstage Magazine. In the last five years alone, Emerging Artists has provided opportunities for over 4,500 diverse artists to see their work developed and premiered at no cost to the artists to submit or participate.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Emerging Artists Theatre acknowledges that this festival of new work is situated on the Lenape island of Manhattan (Mannahatta) and more broadly in Lenapehoking, the Lenape homeland. We pay respect to the Munsee Lenape ancestors and offer our care and gratitude.

FESTIVAL PERFORMANCES

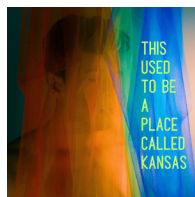

MON, SEPT 8, 7PM

This Used to be a Place Called Kansas

Writer/Actor: Kristopher Victoria

Creative Consultant (photography): Alejandro Victoria

Emerson is totally freaking out! It's his first night working at the first-ever GAY BAR to officially open in his small college town just south of Austin, Texas. Follow him along as he boldly serves up a gripping account bound to leave even the most cynical of spectators agog.

MON, SEPT 8, 7PM

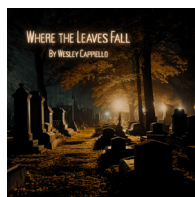

Where the Leaves Fall

Writer: Wesley Cappiello

Director: Jacqueline Neeley

Intimacy Coordinator: K. O'Rourke

A Halloween night hookup is interrupted by a grieving stranger. As the night deepens, desire gives way to something more fragile. Where the Leaves Fall is a tense, intimate one-act about unexpected connection, buried grief, and what it means to truly be seen—if only for a moment.

TUE, SEPT 9, 7PM

Yo Taxi

Writer: Gabriel Castillo

Director: Chris McGinn

Jose Delarosa leaves his family to pursue his acting career. Thinking driving yellow cabs is the solution to all his problems. He realizes that it brings a new set of problems. Along the way on his journey, Jose meets so many different characters. Will they move him closer to his dream or further away. In the end what are you willing to lose? Your family? Your sanity? Your soul?

SETTLING THE SCORE

Writer: Raymond Alvin
Director: Susan Izatt
Choreographer: Jose Milano

What's it like to finally find the kid who bullied you some 40 years earlier?

WED, SEPT 10, 7PM
Five Alarm Tracy

Writer: Dan Moretti
Director: CB Murray

While Tracy Hernandez argues that she is morally and ethically qualified to practice law, the lawyer conducting Tracy's interview watches helplessly as her own successful career falls victim to the greed of others. The two women from very different backgrounds find commonality in one true thing that should bind us all.

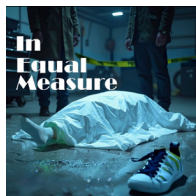

THU, SEPT 11, 7PM
In Equal Measure

Writer: Derek W. Wright
Director: CB Murray

In Equal Measure is a tragic thriller where "an eye for an eye" becomes one father's final choice. Driven by revenge and love for his family, he takes a path he can't walk back. The walls are closing in and the clock is ticking.

What would you do?"

THU, SEPT 11, 7PM
Arsinoë IV

Writer: David Ceci

Princess Arsinoë has spent her entire life preparing to fight for the throne of Egypt upon the death of her father, Ptolemy XII. When the Pharaoh dies, however, will she be able to outmaneuver both her older half-sister, Cleopatra, and the most powerful man in the ancient world, Julius Caesar?

Dawned

Choreographer: Robert Mark Burke

Composer: Eric Dietz

Dawned traces a community's emotional and physical transformation as they navigate the tension between darkness and light. Through virtuosic contemporary dance layered with projection, six performers move with urgency, vulnerability, and resilience. Set to a dramatic, luscious score by Eric Dietz, the work is both a reckoning and a release.

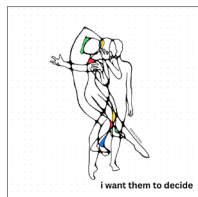

FRI, SEPT 12, 7PM

i want them to decide

Choreographer: Araya Morris

This work is meant to challenge the viewer to stay emotionally invested through the duration of the whole piece. Someone may see the movement as strictly that: movement. To some, the movement may represent something like grief or playfulness... or somewhere in between. They get to decide.

FRI, SEPT 12, 7PM

A Leaf in the Wind

Writer/Director: Jeffery Chen

Music Director: Cas Royalty

Riley is dead. But she has a script, a stage, and one more chance to tell her story—before it's too late. A short musical about grief, mental health, and the people we leave behind.

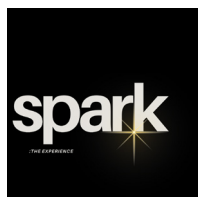

SAT, SEPT 13, 2PM

Spark the Experience

Creator, Producer: Tami McCarthy

Director: Beth Spitalny

Told through the voices of eight women, this powerful and immersive theatrical experience explores themes of identity, loss, love, and growth—revealing the life-changing moments when instinct, fate, or divine intervention ignite a profound awakening. Spark the Experience serves as both a mirror and a beacon, illuminating our shared human experience. It invites audience members to reflect on their own journeys of self-discovery while celebrating the resilience of the human spirit.

Writer: Mia Longenecker

An hour before their first on-air live radio gig, a band of three twentysomethings face creative differences determining their set list.

SAT, SEPT 13, 7PM

rendezvous der Sterne

Choreographer: Amélie Parczany

Taking place in a subway, or anywhere your imagination takes you. The audience is invited to a vibrant overlapping of interactions between strangers; exploring how new relationships and interactions manifest in their lives. We follow their journeys as they stumble across new acquaintances, friends, and even lovers in unconventional ways.

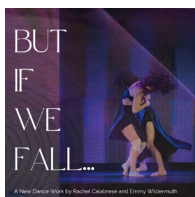

SAT, SEPT 13, 7PM

But If We Fall...

Choreographers: Rachel Calabrese & Emmy Wildermuth

In this duet, we explore how to navigate the loss of a person that is still within reach. The anger, pain and confusion that accompany the slowly pulling apart and away from the person we ultimately love. In walking away, what do we gain so that we might take root?

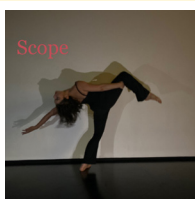

SAT, SEPT 13, 7PM

Scope

Choreographer/Performer: Mia Canzonieri

One young adult stepping out into the cold world. With so many dreams to be fulfilled in an unstable environment. However, that will never stop them from trying. A scope of this person's hard work and training.

Show Pony

Choreography & Direction: Liz Westbrook

Overexertion for compatibility makes a Show Pony. There is no harmony in a world of pretend sincerity, bred for excellence. Three people, get-together, incompatible. They exert effort in hopes of alignment. There are crashes. There is consonance. Illusion where effort wears the costume of ease, and fracture hides in form.

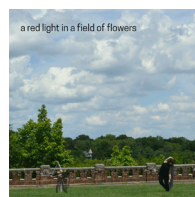

SUN, SEPT 14, 5PM

a red light in a field of flowers

Choreographer/Performer: Grace McCombs

When the desire for normalcy intersects with a feeling of uncertainty and fear. A solo traveling through the journey of relearning safety within one's own body through repetitive acts both frustrating and rewarding. Gaining back agency through a nonlinear and surprising process.

SUN, SEPT 14, 5PM

to be human

Choreographer: Danna Creager

to be human is a developing work to create an anthology of LGBTQ+ stories informed by community discussing queer joy, love, relationships, and pain through movement.

Sun

Choreographer/Performer: Gem Tantuico

Pianist/Composer: Noel Tantuico

SUN is a dialogue utilizing the language of movement and music to air unspoken conversations from a daughter to their mother. Their father's music ignites expression. With undercurrents of Filipino culture, religion, and gender, the piece searches for gratitude while existing in uncertainty.

Every Argument in America Right Now

Writer/Director: Katie Casebolt

Art Design: Maria Ignatova

Under Trump's new radicalized dictatorship, a married couple—She and Him—struggle to find acceptance between the new laws she must adhere to in their once happy life together. After a trying dinnertime conversation, She enacts a drastic plan to save herself from America's new tyrannical family dynamic.

Spark Theatre Festival NYC
A home for emerging artists, a playground for emerging work.

SUBMISSIONS:

To submit your new play, musical, dance, solo show, or other theatrical piece to the New Works Series go to emergingartiststheatre.org.

WE WISH TO EXPRESS OUR GRATITUDE TO THE PERFORMERS' UNIONS:

Actors' Equity Association, American Guild of Musical Artists, American Guild of Variety Artists, and SAG-AFTRA through Theatre Authority, Inc. for their cooperation in permitting the Artists to appear on this program.

Actors' Equity Association ("AEA" or "Equity"), founded in 1913, is the labor union that represents more than 49,000 Actors and Stage Managers in the United States. Equity seeks to advance, promote and foster the art of live theatre as an essential component of our society. Equity negotiates wages and working conditions and provides a wide range of benefits, including health and pension plans, for its members. Actors' Equity is a member of the AFL-CIO, and is affiliated with FIA, an international organization of performing arts unions. The Equity Emblem is our mark of excellence.
